Soulful Singing Sisterhood Songbook 3rd Edition

Hello My Friends! This edition has taken 3 years to be updated; songs have been added, removed, added again, removed again. Prefaces finished and scrapped. It's far from perfect, but this book is so incredibly important to me because it represents the seeds of my growth and subsequent cultivation of knowledge around song sharing and understanding my own culturally appropriate, colonialist, and extractivist ways. Honestly, I'm glad it took me this long to update, because in these 3 years my perspective on song sharing has changed so deeply that I can barely recognize the well meaning woman who wrote the previous editions. To quote a favorite meme by Tony Goldmark: "Normalize changing your opinion when presented with new information" and another approach by Maya Angelou: "Do the best you can until you know better. Then when you know better, do better."

The whole reason I started compiling songbooks was for my students who were learning how to open their voice and learn music while working with me. It felt good having a 'common language' of songs that we could all sing and share with one another. And the whole reason I started teaching was because I was stuck with a pretty debilitating case of vocal shame that slowly started unearthing at 25 and then crescendo'd into my life path at 27. Song became my souls salvation.

My foundation started in the Jewish kids choir at Rodef Shalom, the local synagogue. I don't remember having a lot of shame around my voice back then- mostly I was just stoked to sing. As I grew older it became less safe for me in the largeness of who I am and the shame piled on, and after years my voice got stuck somewhere and letting it out was nearly impossible. I couldn't even sing when I was alone because I was sure that the spirits were judging me.

My singing voice was silent for nearly a decade, and I literally felt like a shell of a human until (long story short) my voice erupted at 27. At the time, I was smack-dab in the center of the New Age ideology that 'we are all one'. With a mindset like that, it's easy to take from others without too much thought- especially when everyone around you is doing the same thing, especially teachers and leaders and folks I looked up to for guidance. From singing songs from other cultures all around the world (without explanation of where they came from or what they mean), to putting them in songbooks (without credit) and then profiting off the books (without reciprocity), to performing the songs and gaining recognition with the sacred songs of others (without permission AND when just a hundred years ago our ancestors would literally imprison, torture, or kill Indigenous people for practicing their spirituality and singing their songs), it's not entirely surprising that I started to steal songs too. In my early days I thought that by sharing the authors and lineage was good enough, so I wrote myself a permission slip to perform and profit from songs that weren't mine. I'm grateful to have been lovingly called in by my friend Kelsey. Initially I was defensive, and it took me a few years to understand what she was pointing to in my own appropriation, but it shifted the course of my life.

To some of you reading this, appropriation may be new information. It may feel extreme. And look. I get it. People have been sharing songs since the dawn of time. But I think I doubled down on helping to educate folks on "Integrating Song Sharing" once I started seeing the pretty terrible way songs are typically shared in New Age circles. Up at Breitenbush Hot Springs in Northern Oregon, the light-hearted music director shared a song circle. Pretty much every song he shared was incorrect in some way, with no credit, and there was some really racist stuff going on (like butchering "We n' de ya ho", a Cherokee Morning Song, and insinuating folks play 'Indian' ala 'dancing like we're at a pow-wow'). While not all song circles are so obviously problematic, this way of sharing still exists with micro and macro aggressions, and the negative impact on historically oppressed folks runs deep.

Soulful Singing Sisterhood Songbook 3rd Edition

The initial 3rd edition preface aimed to express how I want to share these songs, and that (at the time) I hadn't asked permission from most folks to share them, which got me questioning my own motives. I dove deeper and realized that it was not ok to be printing and sharing songs that came from any lineage that my ancestors oppressed. It meant knowing exactly where these songs come from, and giving direct acknowledgment and attribution (and in some cases reciprocity) to those who received the songs, and not including traditional songs with no author. At first, I thought that finding the writers would be challenging, but wings seemingly carried my emails to the right folks, and I was graciously invited to share these songs by many who I have deep love and respect for. My heart warms at the fact that more and more of the songs come from my students, friends, and people I'm in direct relationship with, and I hope this inspires you to cultivate your own songs. There's nothing like singing and sharing a song that you helped give birth that encompasses the notes of your soul.

In sharing these songs, please give proper credit to where they come from. If you decide to share any of these songs, give the original author and lineage attribution. Stay awake and aware in song sharing environments. For too long, white-led spaces have been appropriating the songs of many for their own benefit. You can be a voice for bringing awareness and ending the extractivist lineage of song sharing. You may ruffle some feathers, but to those who's culture has been systemically oppressed and then appropriated, it's the least we can do. If you'd like more guidance, I'm all yours.

What is clear to me is that if cultural sharing is ever going to be possible in a balanced way, a massive redistribution of power is needed. All the proceeds from this book are being donated to BIPOC-led organizations- some of my favorites being Sogorea-Te Land Trust, KAHEA Defense, RAICES, and APTP (Anti Police-Terror Project). Check out the back of the book to learn more about these amazing orgs. Thank you to Kelsey Gustafson for being one of my initial new-age-bubble-poppers and to Anjali Nath Upadhyay of Liberation Spring to help me plant seeds and pull weeds. If you're ready to dive deep into your own decolonization, I couldn't recommend Anjali enough.

This third edition reflects a massive edit of the previous songs in how they were structured so that time signatures and measures make a bit more sense. I've added songs that have pulled my heart-strings written by my favorite singing sisters, my students, and musicians who are all diving into the world of soulful song and sharing their sweet sounds. The incredible art throughout the book was hand painted by my longtime student Kristen Myers (IG: @Beautyweaving). The cover was heavily inspired by Tamara Phillips (Spirit Weavers) with permission. And huge waves of gratitude to Louise Cottrell for helping me edit this book! Holy moly, without all your help who knows where we'd be.

I really care about this music and my role as an educator and I believe that healing and liberation comes from the acknowledgement of mistakes and moving forward with new insight. In 2 months my awareness around song sharing may very well change, who knows! There are no clearcut rules and I'm offering just one perspective. I've included songs that I didn't get implicit permission to use because they were already recorded and published by the original artist or come from my lineage (Jewitch-American-Euromutt). I wish you strong lungs and tuned ears for this musical journey ahead!

In Harmony and Always Alotta Alliteration,

“How do I play a song I’ve never heard?”

First, it's important to share that unless you know how the melody of the song goes. Trying to play a random song out of this book is going to be tricky. Fortunately, I'm compiling a library of all of these songs that you will have access to so you can learn, play along with, and generally jam out to. Additionally, a lot of these songs have been pre-recorded and can be found on YouTube, SoundCloud, etc. I highly recommend you listening to the original artists version so you can get a taste of how they received the song!

“How do I properly share these songs?”

I'm so glad you asked! Song sharing is something I feel very passionately about. There's a difference between sitting around someone's backyard and singing with friends, then performing a song on stage or recording a video on Facebook or YouTube, or actually recording the song and monetizing it by putting it on an album etc. In a space where you're not necessarily gaining fame or monetary funds for sharing this song, at minimum share where the song comes from, who wrote it, and any other pertinent information. If you want to record yourself and put it on Facebook, again at minimum share where it comes from. If these videos have ads on them or become monetized, then it is implicit that you contact the original author of the song and ask permission and most likely offer some type of reciprocity - financial or otherwise. “En El Cielo” by Isabel Ruiz’s song (she never recorded it and only shared person to person) became so popular that people were recording it without permission, putting it on albums, and gaining millions of views and listens without attribution or reciprocity. This is straight up stealing. Don’t be a thief! Anyone who had ever asked her to share it always received permission, and in her lineage to ask for a song you offered some type of reciprocity- usually in the form of tobacco in a hand-embroidered pouch.

What does specific notation mean?

If rhythm is a totally new concept for you, please visit the back of the book! When you see periods (.) after some of the chords, it indicates multiple measures are being played (like ‘Am..’ means 2 measures of Am). Additionally, when you see (’), that indicates that only one beat is being played (like Am’’ means I’m playing 2 beats, or a half-measure of Am). If you see 3/4 it means the song is being played in 3/4 time, where usually the songs in this book are being played in 4/4 time.

Soulful singing membership

This songbook comes with an online membership. Visit it to listen to the songs, watch video tutorials, or learn basic music theory! Visit www.processSING.com/soulful to sign up.

All proceeds from the sale of this book are donated

Reciprocity is important. This songbook, like all of my public groups, are being used to generate funds for amazing BIPOC-led organizations helping rematriate the land, bring equity to those who’ve been oppressed, and help the scales of justice even out. My favorites are Sogorea-Te, KAHEA, RAICES, and APTP. If you know of any amazing BIPOC-led organizations that are doing work like this, let me know! What a beautiful opportunity to allocate funds! Learn more about these orgs at the back of the book.

- BEAUTY BY EDWARD MILLS -
ADDED WITH PERMISSION

Verse:                    G            C            G            C
There is so much beauty in the world.                    (x2)
                         Am                    D                    G                    Em
Open your eyes so you can see it. Open your heart so you can be it.
                         C                    D                    G                    C            G            C            G            C            D
There is so much beauty in the world.

                         C                    D                    G                    Em
Chorus:            There is beauty all around you just take a look and see.
                         C                    D                    G                    G7
And the beauty that's inside of you is what you're meant to be.
                         C                    D                    G                    Em
There's beauty in the earth below and in the sky above.
                         Am                    Bm                    C                    D
And when you see that beauty then you'll know how much you're loved.

Verse

                         G                    C                    G                    C
Bridge:            Beauty walks in front of you and follows close behind.
                         G                    C                    G                    C
Beauty to your left and it is there on your right.
                         G                    C                    G                    C
Beauty above you and beauty down below.
                         G                    C                    G                    C
Beauty within you wherever you may go.
                         G            C            G            C                    G            C            G            C
You walk in beauty.                    X2. Breathe in beauty.                    X2
                         G            C            G            C                    G            C            G            C
We live in beauty.                    We live in beauty.

The roots that reach below us, The branches reach to sky
The egg cracks open, And the bird begins to fly
The predator it catches , The prey it tries to run
All is integrated and dissolves back into one
Into one...

The mystery of night, the openness of day
All that is revealed and all that hides away
We're reaching ever forward
While looking far behind
We circle back around and it's the center that we find
That we find...

- DOWN TO THE GROUND BY ARIELLE BROWN -
ACAPPELLA WITH PERCUSSION, ADDED WITH PERMISSION

Gather round now brothers and sisters,
There's a weight that we've been carrying.
Our souls are heavy with the weight of the world,
And I see hopelessness is creeping in.
Well I'm here to tell you that there's hope for us yet,
There's an ember hidden deep in the coals.
So we'll stoke this ember till our hearts set on fire,
And we'll alchemize this pain into gold.

I'm gonna lay it on down, I'm gonna lay it on down,
I'm gonna lay it on down, down, down to the ground. (x2)

Listen to your heart it will tell you,
That your suffering is rooted in the fear,
That you're unworthy of the love that you seek,
And you cannot trust the wisdom in your tears.
Well the earth is speaking and she's beckoning you,
To lean into the truth within your bones.
It's a sweet surrender, it's a welcome reminder, it's the drumbeat calling you to come home, home, HOME.

I'm gonna lay it on down, I'm gonna lay it on down,
I'm gonna lay it on down, down, down to the ground. (x2)

So gather round now brothers and sisters.
This invitation's here for you to see,
That isolation is the plague of our times,
And the medicine is in community.
So share your wisdom, your most vulnerable truths,
And you will shine your light for all to see.
As above so below, as within so without.
This world's great healing starts with you and me, me, ME.

I'm gonna lay it on down, I'm gonna lay it on down,
I'm gonna lay it on down, down, down to the ground. (x2) (TO END)

- DOWN TO THE RIVER TO PRAY / THE GOOD OL' WAY -
Traditional Negro Spiritual*

NOTE: THE TIMING IN THIS SONG IS CHALLENGING! LISTEN TO FIGURE IT OUT 🤔

C F C
As I went down in the river to pray Studying about that good old way
G F C
And who shall wear the starry crown Good Lord, show me the way!
G C F C
O sisters, let's go down, Let's go down, come on down
G C F C
O sisters, let's go down, Down to the river to pray

(Exchange sisters with brothers, mothers, fathers, children, elders, family, singers, and whatever else you want to sing about).

Note – this is the one song in this book that was not previously recorded or comes directly from my own lineage. However, this song is incredibly popular and I think it's really important that people know the story and lineage behind this song which is why I have included it.

*"Down in the River to Pray" (also known as "Down to the River to Pray," "Down in the Valley to Pray," "The Good Old Way," and "Come, Let Us All Go Down") is a traditional American song variously described as a Christian folk hymn, an African-American spiritual, an Appalachian song, and a southern gospel song. The exact origin of the song is unknown. Research suggests that it was composed by an African-American slave.

Hannah Szenes was born July 17, 1921 in Budapest, Hungary. The daughter of an author and a journalist, she demonstrated her own literary talent from an early age, and she kept a diary from age 13 until shortly before her death on November 7, 1944. Although her family was assimilated, anti-Semitic sentiment in Budapest led her to involvement in Zionist activities, and she left Hungary for Eretz Yisrael in 1939. She studied first at an agricultural school, and then settled at Kibbutz Sdot Yam. While there she wrote poetry, as well as a play about kibbutz life. In 1943, Szenes volunteered to become one of 33 people chosen to parachute into Europe to help establish contact with partisan resistance fighters in an attempt to aid beleaguered Jewish communities. On June 7, 1944, at the height of the deportation of Hungarian Jews, Szenes crossed the border into Hungary. She was caught almost immediately by the Hungarian police, and tortured cruelly and repeatedly over the next several months. Despite these conditions, Szenes refused to divulge any information about her mission. Throughout her ordeal she remained steadfast in her courage, and when she was executed by a firing squad on November 7, she refused the blindfold, staring squarely at her executors and her fate. Szenes was only 23 years old. israelforever.com

I'm gonna take a full belly breath i don't need to know what is happening next the only thing i needs here with me is my sweet soft and squishy body

hey body, what do you need just a little bit of t l and c
hey body, what should we do? i don't really care's long as i am with you

I'm gonna take a breath and drop in while the world around me spins and spins
I'm gonna play it safe and take space I'm clearing out my schedule for lazier days

hey body, what do you need just a little bit of t l and c
hey body, what should we do? i don't really care's long as i am spending more ti-me with you

- GENTLE ARMS OF EDEN -
BY DAVE CARTER & TRACY GRAMMER, I USE CAPO 3

G' F' C G' F' C
On a sleepy endless ocean When the world lay in a dream
F' C' F' C' Dm F'
There was rhythm in the splash and roll But not a voice to sing
G' F' C G' F' C
So the moon fell on the breakers And the morning warmed the waves
F' C' F' C' Dm G
'Til a single cell did jump and hum For joy as though to say

CHORUS: C C F' C C
This is my home, This is my only home
F' C' Am' C' G G
This is the only sacred ground that I have ever known
C C F' G' Am'
And should I stray In the dark night alone
F' C' Am' F' G' C C
Rock me Goddess in the gentle arms of Eden

Then the day shone bright and rounder, 'Til the one turned into two
And the two into ten thousand things, And old things into new
And on some virgin beach head, One lonesome critter crawled
And he looked about and shouted out, In his most astonished drawl

Then all the sky was buzzing And the ground was carpet green
And the wary children of the woods Went dancing in between
And the people sang rejoicing When the fields were glad with grain
This song of celebration From their cities on the plain

Now there's smoke across the harbour And there's factories on the shore
And the world is ill with greed and will, And enterprise of war
But I will lay my burdens In the cradle of your grace
And the shining beaches of your love, And the sea of your embrace

- I'LL FLY AWAY -

CHRISTIAN HYMN BY ALBERT E. BRUMLEY
ARRANGED BY LAUREN ARROW

C                      C                      F              C
Some bright morning when this life is over I'll fly away
C                      Am                      C'    G'              C
To that home on God's celestial shore I'll fly away

Chorus:

C              C                      F              C
I'll fly away, oh glory I'll fly away in the morning
C                      Am                      C'    G'              C
When I die, Hallelujah by and by I'll fly away

C                      C                      F              C
When the shadows of this life have gone I'll fly away
C                      Am                      C'    G'              C
Like a bird from these prison walls I'll fly away (ch)

C                      C                      F              C
Oh, how glad and happy when we meet I'll fly away
C                      Am                      C    G              C
No more cold iron shackles on my feet I'll fly away (ch)

C                      C                      F              C
Just a few more weary days and then I'll fly away
C                      Am                      C    G              C
To a land where joys will never end I'll fly away (ch)

- IF YOU WANT TO SING OUT, SING OUT -

A FOLK ROCK SONG BY CAT STEVENS IN HAROLD & MAUDE, 1971

G D C.. G D Em..
Well if you want to sing out, sing out. And if you want to be free, be free.

Am Em D G D
Cause there's a million things to be. You know that there are.

G D C G D Em
And if you want to live high, live high. And if you want to live low, live low.

Am Em D G D
Cause there's a million ways to go. You know that there are.

Chorus (you can play a d instead of bm on the last line)

G C D G
" You can do what you want, The opportunity's on.
" And if you find a new way, You can do it today.
" You can make it all true. And you can make it un-

G Em D Em Bm (D) Em Bm D
Do you see Ahhh it's easy, AAhhhh, you only need to know.

G D C G D Em
Well if you want to say yes, say yes. And if you want to say no, say no.

Am Em D G D
Cause there's a million ways to go. You know that there are.

G D C G D Em
And if you want to be me, be me. And if you want to be you, be you.

Am Em D G D
Cause there's a million things to do. You know that there are. (CHORUS)

G D C G D Em
Well if you want to say yes, say yes. And if you want to say no, say no.

Am Em D G D
Cause there's a million ways to go. You know that there are.

G D C G D Em
And if you want to be me, be me. And if you want to be you, be you.

Am Em D G D
Cause there's a million things to do. You know that there are.

- IN OUR HANDS BY LAUREN ARROW -

I PLAY THIS SONG WITH MY GUITAR TUNED DOWN A WHOLE STEP
So I am playing the shapes of Dsus Amsus C G but playing Csus Gmsus Bb and F

Csus	Gmsus	Bb	F
I know I was	taught That this	world is for	taking but
Every small	step We come	closer to	breaking the point isn't	for us to	Guilt trip the	past but
can we turn the	tables	Before our	collapse

(Chorus progression stays the same but goes to halftime)

Csus	Gmsus	Bb	F
We can do better I	know that we	ca---	an
We can do better it's	all in our	ha---	ands
We can do better it's	part of the	pl---	an
We can do better I	know that we	can	yes we
we can/ in our hands / its the plan (pause)
Csus	Gmsus	Bb	F
They say there's a	prophecy well I	hope that it's	true, that we'll get to our	edges Be-	fore we break	through but how will we	know When we've	gone far en-	ough? Cuz we've come to our	cliff And we're	bout to jump	off - - - - -

Chorus

Csus	Gmsus	Bb	F
I've spent my life	trying to	do the	right thing
But my 'we are all	one' song feels	like bypa-	ssing
And if I love the	earth Then it's	time that I	rise
And fight for our	balance So	all life can	thrive ~Chorus

- KOTHBIRO (RAIN IS COMING) BY AYUB OGADA -

ORIGINAL SONG IN DHOLUO, A TRIBAL LANGUAGE FROM THE LAKE VICTORIA REGION OF KENYA (3/4 TIME), FROM THE CONSTANT GARDENER

This song has a beautiful plucking pattern, but to simplify it I've added chords:

Am Em Am
Aaaah haye haye Haye haye Haye haye (x2)
Am Em Am
Oooh mam' buwinja Koth biro Keluru dhok e dala (x2)
Am Em Am
Aaaah haye haye Haye haye Haye haye (x2)
This is sung over the main melody line- "aaaah haye haye".

Yaye nyithindogi un koro un utimoru nade? Koth biro, Keluru dhok e dala
Translation from Dholuo: Kothbiro (rain is coming) Auma do you hear what I say
The rain is on it's way, Return our cattle home. Yaye the children
What is it that you think you do? The rain is on it's way
Return our cattle home.

- LEAN ON ME BY BILL WITHERS -

C F C Em G
Sometimes in our lives, we all have pain, We all have sorrow
C F C G C
But if we are wise We know that there's always tomorrow

C F C Em G
Lean on me, when you're not strong, And I'll be your friend, I'll help you carry on
C F C G C
For it won't be long Til I'm gonna need Somebody to lean on

C F C Em G
Please, swallow your pride, if I have things, you need to borrow
C F C G C
For no one can fill those of your needs that you don't let show

[Chorus]

C F C Em G
If there is a load you have to bear that you can't carry
C F C G C
I'm right up the road I'll share your load If you just call me

[Bridge]

C
So just call on me brother, when you need a hand

G C
We all need somebody to lean on

C
I just might have a problem that you'd understand

C G C
We all need somebody to lean on

- LOVER EARTH BY LAUREN ARROW, 2019 -

I would like to date you, I would like to be your loverrr - - - -
Even though they call you Mother... Lover Earth.

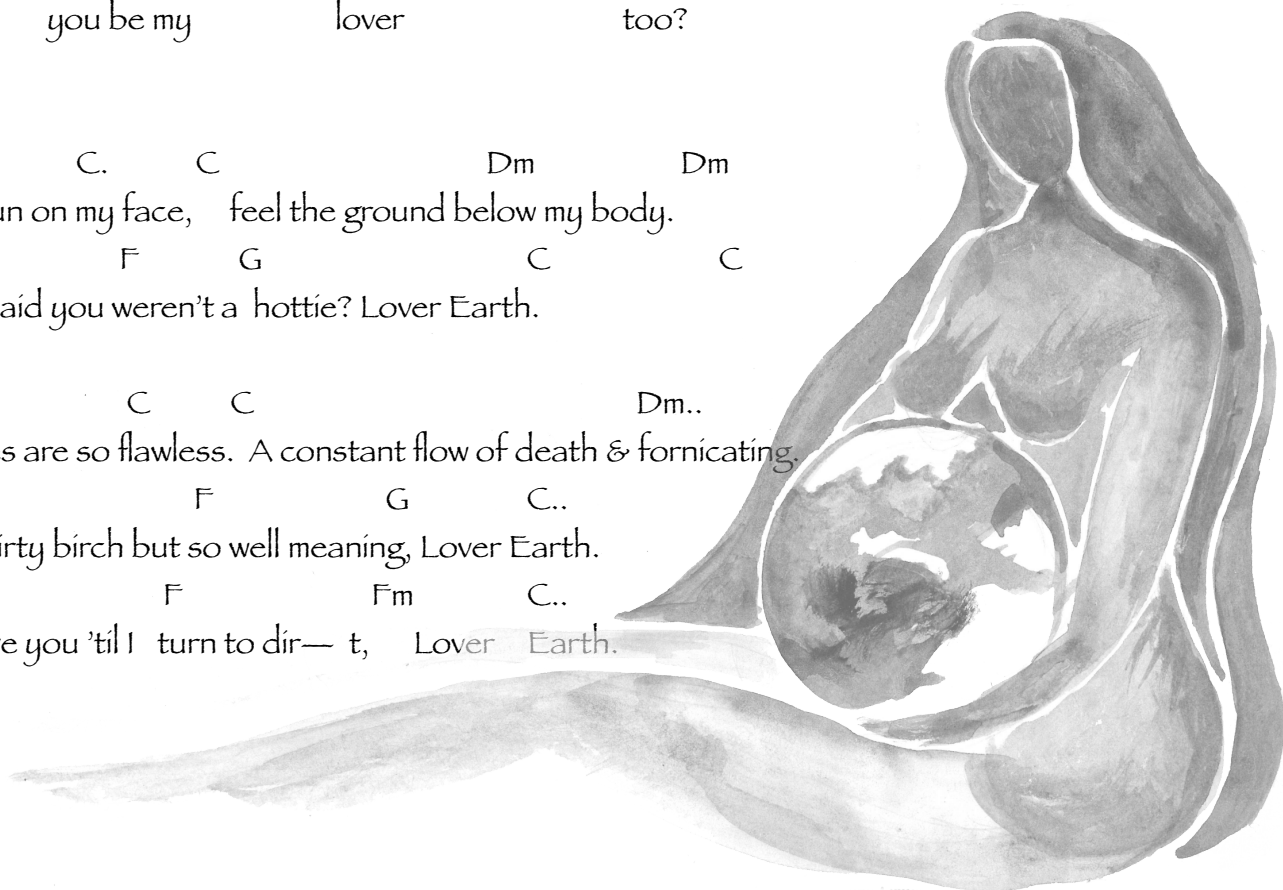

I would like to court you, Go on hikes and bring you picnics.
You'll see we're really not so different... Lover Earth.

Cuz I've got a secret:
I've been in love with you!
And it took me a while to sing it...
Will you be my lover too?

Feel the sun on my face, feel the ground below my body.
Whoever said you weren't a hottie? Lover Earth.

Your cycles are so flawless. A constant flow of death & fornicating.
You're a dirty birch but so well meaning, Lover Earth.
And I'll love you 'til I turn to dirt, Lover Earth.

JEWISH SONG, SUNG ACAPELLA IN A ROUND

Ma tovu
Ohaleicha ya'akov
Mishkenoteicha
Yisrael. / Yohvei Tevel (and the whole world)
מה טבו אהליך יעקב משכנותיך ישראל

Translation: How goodly are thy tents, O Jacob, thy dwelling places, O Israel!
(Rest of prayer: As for me, through Your abundant grace, I enter your house to worship with awe in Your sacred place. O Lord, I love the House where you dwell, and the place where your glory tabernacles. I shall prostrate myself and bow; I shall kneel before the Lord my Maker. To You, Eternal One, goes my prayer: may this be a time of your favor. In Your abundant love, O God, answer me with the Truth of Your salvation.)

G G
Busted flat in Baton Rouge, waitin' for a train
G D7
When I's feelin' near as faded as my jeans
D7 D7
Bobby thumbed a diesel down just before it rained
D7 G
And rode us all the way into New Orleans

G G
I pulled my harpoon out of my dirty red bandana
G G7 C
I's playin' soft while Bobby sang the blues
C G
Windshield wipers slappin' time, I was holdin' Bobby's hand in mine
D7 D7
We sang every song that driver knew

C G
Freedom's just another word for nothin' left to lose
D7 G
Nothin', it ain't nothin' honey, if it ain't free
C G
And feelin' good was easy, lord, oh, when he sang the blues
D7
You know feelin' good was good enough for me

G

From the Kentucky coal mines to the California sun

D7

Yeah Bobby shared the secrets of my soul

Through all kinds of weather, through everything we done

G

Yeah Bobby baby kept me from the cold

One day up near Salinas, lo-ord, I let him slip away

C

He's lookin' for that home and I hope he finds it

G

Well I'd trade all my tomorrows for one single yesterday

D7

To be holdin' Bobby's body next to mine

Chorus:

Translation:

Oh my girl,
Did you have dinner?

No, my dear (boyfriend), I did not, nothing at
all. Because my mother reproached me
Because of your visits to me

If I had knew, my dear
That she would reproach you for that
I wouldn't be coming in the morning and in the evening.

STUDENT IN THE SOULFUL SINGER SISTERHOOD, ADDED WITH PERMISSION

Em..	D..	Am..	Em..
The wind oh she	blows and I	know this too shall	pass.
Em..	D..	Am..	Em..
Your tears and your	frowns don't you	worry they'll soon turn	'round...
Em..	D..	Am..	Em..
The fire now	roars, and I	soar over the	aaaaash.

Am..	D..	C..	Em..
Your smiles and your car- -	esses give me	strength, give me	hope.
Am..	D..	C..	Em..
Two souls on their	journeys come to-	gether to learn and	grooooow.

Em..	D..	Am..	Em..
The silence it re-	minds me to look in-	side me for all I	am.
Em..	D..	Am..	Em..
The water, she's ever	flowing, she	teaches me to let	go.

Em..
The *earth... The *air... (Improvise with whatever element or anything you want to sing about, repeating as much as you like)

Ending:

Em..	D..	Am..	Em..
The wind oh she	blows and I	know this too shall	pass.

- THE WOMB SONG BY ILA CANTOR -
ADDED WITH PARMESAN

You come into the world until you see its a womb
You're loving what your mother has begun to create but
Your sisters and your brothers are awakening too
It's time to realize another birthing awaits you!

So come into llllllfeeeee
Come to the soil at the roots of your soul
The essence you find
When loving is beckoning for seedlings to grow

The song repeats but the underlined line changes with the following:

Come to the waters at the well at your soul

Come to the fire at the heart of your soul

Come to the flowers and the fruits of your soul

- WAY TO THE WELL BY STARHAWK AND ROSE MAY DANCE -

PAGAN CHANT WITH MELODY ADAPTED FROM A SOUTH AFRICAN FREEDOM SONG

Like the grasses, through the dark, through the soil, to the sunlight we shall rise again.

We are searching- for the waters of life, we are moving- we shall live again. (x2)

We will never, never lose our way to the well of her memory (or 'of remembering')

And the power- of her living flame- it will rise- it will rise again. (x2)

Ch: I am a woman who runs with the wolves
A brave heart shatterin' shatterin' walls
A woman who follows follows the call of
The wild one dancing dancing it all

I have stood naked in front of the judge
I bared my body my breasts and my blood
I heard their whispers of disrepair
I choose to leave all of it there!

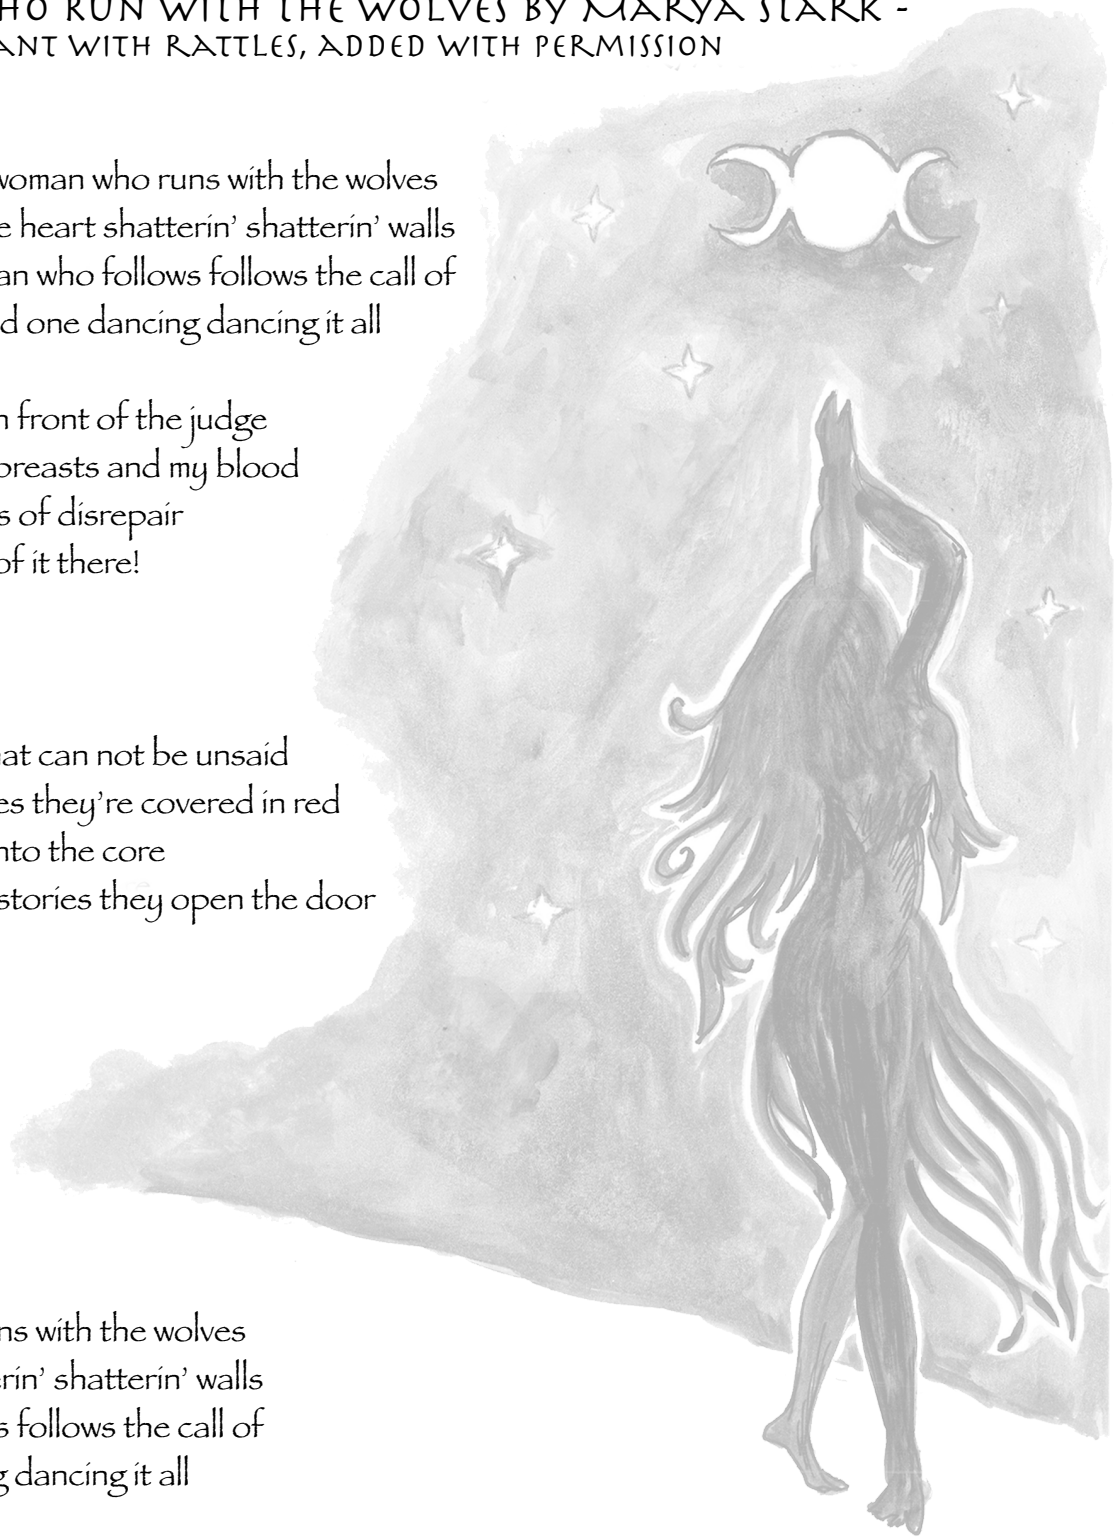

Ch.

I have spoke truth that can not be unsaid
I have found treasures they're covered in red
I have gone deeper into the core
Where the oldest of stories they open the door

Ch.

I am a Woman!
I am a Wild One!
I am a Woman!

- YOU HAVE A CHOICE BY LAUREN ARROW -
ON "IT'S HAPPENING!" 2016

Intro: Am, F, G x2

Am...

You have a choice: to be free or to live in captivity.

F..

The walls are in your mind-

G..

Thanks for the reminder!

Am....

Feel your body in the breeze

The sunlight in the trees

F..

G..

Touches everything.

Am....

Whats stopping you

from being a vessel clear and true?

F..

This is not a test

G..

It is up to no one but yourself.

Am....

You have a choice: to be free or to live in captivity.

F..

The walls are in your mind-

G..

Thanks for the reminder!

-YOU'VE GOT A FRIEND, CAROLE KING -
CAPO 3

Am E7 Am E7 Am-E7-Am
When you're down and troubled and you need some loving care,
Dm G7 C E7
and nothing, oh, nothing is going right,
E7 Am E7 Am-E7-Am
close your eyes and think of me and soon I will be there
Dm Em G7
to brighten up even your darkest night.

Chorus:

C F
You just call out my name, and you know wherever I am,
C G
I'll come running to see you again.
C F Am
Winter, spring, summer, or fall, all you got to do is call
F
and I'll be there, yeah, yeah, yeah.
C F C E7
You've got a friend.

Am E7 Am E7 Am E7 Am
If the sky above you should turn dark and full of clouds,
Dm G7 C
and that old north wind should begin to blow,
Am7 E7 Am E7 Am E7 Am
keep your head together and call my name out loud.
Dm Em G7
Soon I'll be knocking upon your door.

Soulful Singing Sisterhood Songbook 3rd Edition

F
Hey ain't it good to know that you've got a friend when people can be so cold. They'll hurt you and desert you.
C F
Am D7
Well, they'll take your soul if you let them.
G7 G
Oh yeah, but don't you let them.

C F
You just call out my name, and you know wherever I am,
C G
I'll come running to see you again.
C F Am
Winter, spring, summer, or fall, all you got to do is call
F
and I'll be there, yeah, yeah, yeah.

C F C
You've got a friend yeah baby. You've got a friend.
F C
Ain't it good to know you've got a friend?
F C
Ain't it good to know you've got a friend?
F C
Oh, yeah, yeah. You've got a friend.

Info on some of my favorite BIPOC Led Organizations dedicated to serving the Earth and it's co-inhabitants. You are invited to dive in and learn how to support organizations intent on co-creating a just, balanced, and life-giving world!

Sogorea-Te Land Trust

The Sogorea Te Land Trust is an urban Indigenous women-led community organization that facilitates the return of Chochenyo and Karkin Ohlone lands in the San Francisco Bay Area to Indigenous stewardship. Sogorea Te creates opportunities for all people living in Ohlone territory to work together to re-envision the Bay Area community and what it means to live on Ohlone land. Guided by the belief that land is the foundation that can bring us together,

Sogorea Te calls on us all to heal from the legacies of colonialism and genocide, to remember different ways of living, and to do the work that our ancestors and future generations are calling us to do. sogoreate-landtrust.org

KAHEA Land Defense

KAHEA is a community-based organization working to improve the quality of life for Hawai'i's people and future generations through the revitalization and protection of Hawai'i's unique natural and cultural resources. We advocate for the proper stewardship of our resources and for social responsibility by promoting cultural understanding and environmental justice. We focus on issues that impact cultural rights and the 'āina (land). We are cultural activists and practitioners, including kuma hula (teachers of dance, language, chants, history, and healing), environmental activists and people concerned about social justice. We are on every island. We are 'ōpio (youth), mākuā (adults) and kūpuna (elders) Together, we envision a truly just and sustainable Hawai'i in a world where people, culture and native ecosystems survive and thrive. kahea.org

ATP (Anti Police-Terror Project)

The Anti Police-Terror Project is a Black-led, multi-racial, intergenerational coalition that seeks to build a replicable and sustainable model to eradicate police terror in communities of color. We support families surviving police terror in their fight for justice, documenting police abuses and connecting impacted families and community members with resources, legal referrals, and opportunities for healing. ATP began as a project of the ONYX Organizing Committee. www.antipoliceterrorproject.org

RAICES

RAICES is a nonprofit agency that promotes justice by providing free and low-cost legal services to underserved immigrant children, families, and refugees. With legal services, social programs, bond assistance, and an advocacy team focused on changing the narrative around immigration in this country, RAICES is operating on the national frontlines of the fight for immigration rights. www.raicestexas.org

Liberation Spring

Liberation Spring is a freedom school. Freedom schools are often associated with the Freedom Summer educational programs that thrived during the U.S. civil rights movement as intellectual hubs for political education to equip organizers to effectively serve their communities thru crafting activist strategies. Liberation Spring infuses this legacy with the best of the 1960s/1970s U. S. feminist movement's consciousness-raising tradition, the practicality of skill-sharing common within DIY free schools, the intellectual rigor of underground graduate schools, & the camaraderie of radical study groups. UNIVERSAL
KEY
(chord function)

I II III IV V VI VII I

THE UNIVERSAL KEY is a musical numbering system based on the major scale that uses numbers instead of letters to identify the notes of the scale: DO=1, RE=2, MI=3, FA=4, SO=5, LA=6, TI=7, DO=8(1).

ROMAN NUMERALS: Professional studio musicians, who must be able to play on sight from chord charts in any key, often use a handy system of music notation known as "the Nashville system" for writing and playing chord charts. The Roman numerals (I, IV, V, etc.) represent major chords built off any scale degree; other chords are shown by a Roman numeral followed by the abbreviation for that chord type. For example, IVm is a minor chord with the fourth degree of the major scale as the root. In the Key of D, the IVm chord is G-minor; in the Key of B, the IVm chord is E-minor.

Info on some of my favorite BIPOC Led Organizations dedicated to serving the Earth and it's residents. You are invited to dive in and learn how to support organizations intent on co-creating a just, balanced, and life-giving world!

Sogorea-Te Land Trust

The Sogorea Te Land Trust is an urban Indigenous women-led community organization that facilitates the return of Chochenyo and Karkin Ohlone lands in the San Francisco Bay Area to Indigenous stewardship. Sogorea Te creates opportunities for all people living in Ohlone territory to work together to re-envision the Bay Area community and what it means to live on Ohlone land. Guided by the belief that land is the foundation that can bring us together,

Sogorea Te calls on us all to heal from the legacies of colonialism and genocide, to remember different ways of living, and to do the work that our ancestors and future generations are calling us to do. sogoreate-landtrust.org

KAHEA Land Defense

KAHEA is a community-based organization working to improve the quality of life for Hawai'i's people and future generations through the revitalization and protection of Hawai'i's unique natural and cultural resources. We advocate for the proper stewardship of our resources and for social responsibility by promoting cultural understanding and environmental justice. We focus on issues that impact cultural rights and the 'āina (land). We are cultural activists and practitioners, including kuma hula (teachers of dance, language, chants, history, and healing), environmental activists and people concerned about social justice. We are on every island. We are 'ōpio (youth), mākuā (adults) and kūpuna (elders) Together, we envision a truly just and sustainable Hawai'i in a world where people, culture and native ecosystems survive and thrive. kahea.org

ATP (Anti Police-Terror Project)

The Anti Police-Terror Project is a Black-led, multi-racial, intergenerational coalition that seeks to build a replicable and sustainable model to eradicate police terror in communities of color. We support families surviving police terror in their fight for justice, documenting police abuses and connecting impacted families and community members with resources, legal referrals, and opportunities for healing. ATP began as a project of the ONYX Organizing Committee. www.antipoliceterrorproject.org

RAICES

RAICES is a nonprofit agency that promotes justice by providing free and low-cost legal services to underserved immigrant children, families, and refugees. With legal services, social programs, bond assistance, and an advocacy team focused on changing the narrative around immigration in this country, RAICES is operating on the national frontlines of the fight for immigration rights. www.raicestexas.org

Liberation Spring

Liberation Spring is a freedom school. Freedom schools are often associated with the Freedom Summer educational programs that thrived during the U.S. civil rights movement as intellectual hubs for political education to equip organizers to effectively serve their communities thru crafting activist strategies. Liberation Spring infuses this legacy with the best of the 1960s/1970s U. S. feminist movement's consciousness-raising tradition, the practicality of skill-sharing common within DIY free schools, the intellectual rigor of underground graduate schools, & the camaraderie of radical study groups. ## Welcome to the Third Edition of the Soulful Singing Sisterhood Songbook!

Hello My Friends! This edition has taken 3 years to be updated; songs have been added, removed, added again, removed again. Prefaces finished and scrapped. It's far from perfect, but this book is so incredibly important to me because it represents the seeds of my growth and subsequent cultivation of knowledge around song sharing and understanding my own culturally appropriative, colonialist, and extractivist ways. Honestly, I'm glad it took me this long to update, because in these 3 years my perspective on song sharing has changed so deeply that I can barely recognize the well meaning woman who wrote the previous editions. To quote a favorite meme by Tony Goldmark: "Normalize changing your opinion when presented with new information" and another approach by Maya Angelou: "Do the best you can until you know better. Then when you know better, do better."

The whole reason I started compiling songbooks was for my students who were learning how to open their voice and learn music while working with me. It felt good having a 'common language' of songs that we could all sing and share with one another. And the whole reason I started teaching was because I was stuck with a pretty debilitating case of vocal shame that slowly started unearthing at 25 and then crescendo'd into my life path at 27. Song became my souls salvation.

My foundation started in the Jewish kids choir at Rodef Shalom, the local synagogue. I don't remember having a lot of shame around my voice back then- mostly I was just stoked to sing. As I grew older it became less safe for me in the largeness of who I am and the shame piled on, and after years my voice got stuck somewhere and letting it out was nearly impossible. I couldn't even sing when I was alone because I was sure that the spirits were judging me.

My singing voice was silent for nearly a decade, and I literally felt like a shell of a human until (long story short) my voice erupted at 27. At the time, I was smack-dab in the center of the New Age ideology that 'we are all one'. With a mindset like that, it's easy to take from others without too much thought- especially when everyone around you is doing the same thing, especially teachers and leaders and folks I looked up to for guidance. From singing songs from other cultures all around the world (without explanation of where they came from or what they mean), to putting them in songbooks (without credit) and then profiting off the books (without reciprocity), to performing the songs and gaining recognition with the sacred songs of others (without permission AND when just a hundred years ago our ancestors would literally imprison, torture, or kill Indigenous people for practicing their spirituality and singing their songs), it's not entirely surprising that I started to steal songs too. In my early days I thought that by sharing the authors and lineage was good enough, so I wrote myself a permission slip to perform and profit from songs that weren't mine. I'm grateful to have been lovingly called in by my friend Kelsey. Initially I was defensive, and it took me a few years to understand what she was pointing to in my own appropriation, but it shifted the course of my life.

To some of you reading this, appropriation may be new information. It may feel extreme. And look. I get it. People have been sharing songs since the dawn of time. But I think I doubled down on helping to educate folks on "Integrous Song Sharing" once I started seeing the pretty terrible way songs are typically shared in New Age circles. Up at Breitenbush Hot Springs in Northern Oregon, the light-hearted music director shared a song circle. Pretty much every song he shared was incorrect in some way, with no credit, and there was some really racist stuff going on (like butchering "We n' de ya ho', a Cherokee Morning Song, and insinuating folks play 'Indian' ala 'dancing like we're at a pow-wow'). While not all song circles are so obviously problematic, this way of sharing still exists with micro and macro aggressions, and the negative impact on historically oppressed folks runs deep.

The initial 3rd edition preface aimed to express how I want to share these songs, and that (at the time) I hadn't asked permission from most folks to share them, which got me questioning my own motives. I dove deeper and realized that it was not ok to be printing and sharing songs that came from any lineage that my ancestors oppressed. It meant knowing exactly where these songs come from, and giving direct acknowledgment and attribution (and in some cases reciprocity) to those who received the songs, and not including traditional songs with no author. At first, I thought that finding the writers would be challenging, but wings seemingly carried my emails to the right folks, and I was graciously invited to share these songs by many who I have deep love and respect for. My heart warms at the fact that more and more of the songs come from my students, friends, and people I'm in direct relationship with, and I hope this inspires you to cultivate your own songs. There's nothing like singing and sharing a song that you helped give birth that encompasses the notes of your soul.

In sharing these songs, please give proper credit to where they come from. If you decide to share any of these songs, give the original author and lineage attribution. Stay awake and aware in song sharing environments. For too long, white-led spaces have been appropriating the songs of many for their own benefit. You can be a voice for bringing awareness and ending the extractivist lineage of song sharing. You may ruffle some feathers, but to those who's culture has been systemically oppressed and then appropriated, it's the least we can do. If you'd like more guidance, I'm all yours.

What is clear to me is that if cultural sharing is ever going to be possible in a balanced way, a massive redistribution of power is needed. All the proceeds from this book are being donated to BIPOC-led organizations- some of my favorites being Sogorea-Te Land Trust, KAHEA Defense, RAICES, and APTP (Anti Police-Terror Project). Check out the back of the book to learn more about these amazing orgs. Thank you to Kelsey Gustafson for being one of my initial new-age-bubble-poppers and to Anjali Nath Upadhyay of Liberation Spring to help me plant seeds and pull weeds. If you're ready to dive deep into your own decolonization, I couldn't recommend Anjali enough.

This third edition reflects a massive edit of the previous songs in how they were structured so that time signatures and measures make a bit more sense. I've added songs that have pulled my heart-strings written by my favorite singing sisters, my students, and musicians who are all diving into the world of soulful song and sharing their sweet sounds. The incredible art throughout the book was hand painted by my longtime student Kristen Myers (IG: @Beautyweaving). The cover was heavily inspired by Tamara Phillips (Spirit Weavers) with permission. And huge waves of gratitude to Louise Cottrell for helping me edit this book! Holy moly, without all your help who knows where we'd be.

I really care about this music and my role as an educator and I believe that healing and liberation comes from the acknowledgement of mistakes and moving forward with new insight. In 2 months my awareness around song sharing may very well change, who knows! There are no clearcut rules and I'm offering just one perspective. I've included songs that I didn't get implicit permission to use because they were already recorded and published by the original artist or come from my lineage (Jewitch-American-Euromutt). I wish you strong lungs and tuned ears for this musical journey ahead!

In Harmony and Always Alotta Alliteration,

“How do I play a song I’ve never heard?”

First, it's important to share that unless you know how the melody of the song goes. Trying to play a random song out of this book is going to be tricky. Fortunately, I'm compiling a library of all of these songs that you will have access to so you can learn, play along with, and generally jam out to. Additionally, a lot of these songs have been pre-recorded and can be found on YouTube, SoundCloud, etc. I highly recommend you listening to the original artists version so you can get a taste of how they received the song!

“How do I properly share these songs?”

I'm so glad you asked! Song sharing is something I feel very passionately about. There's a difference between sitting around someone's backyard and singing with friends, then performing a song on stage or recording a video on Facebook or YouTube, or actually recording the song and monetizing it by putting it on an album etc. In a space where you're not necessarily gaining fame or monetary funds for sharing this song, at minimum share where the song comes from, who wrote it, and any other pertinent information. If you want to record yourself and put it on Facebook, again at minimum share where it comes from. If these videos have ads on them or become monetized, then it is implicit that you contact the original author of the song and ask permission and most likely offer some type of reciprocity - financial or otherwise. “En El Cielo” by Isabel Ruiz’s song (she never recorded it and only shared person to person) became so popular that people were recording it without permission, putting it on albums, and gaining millions of views and listens without attribution or reciprocity. This is straight up stealing. Don’t be a thief! Anyone who had ever asked her to share it always received permission, and in her lineage to ask for a song you offered some type of reciprocity- usually in the form of tobacco in a hand-embroidered pouch.

What does specific notation mean?

If rhythm is a totally new concept for you, please visit the back of the book! When you see periods (.) after some of the chords, it indicates multiple measures are being played (like ‘Am..’ means 2 measures of Am). Additionally, when you see (’), that indicates that only one beat is being played (like Am’’ means I’m playing 2 beats, or a half-measure of Am). If you see 3/4 it means the song is being played in 3/4 time, where usually the songs in this book are being played in 4/4 time.

Soulful singing membership

This songbook comes with an online membership. Visit it to listen to the songs, watch video tutorials, or learn basic music theory! Visit www.processSING.com/soulful to sign up.

All proceeds from the sale of this book are donated

Reciprocity is important. This songbook, like all of my public groups, are being used to generate funds for amazing BIPOC-led organizations helping rematriate the land, bring equity to those who’ve been oppressed, and help the scales of justice even out. My favorites are Sogorea-Te, KAHEA, RAICES, and APTP. If you know of any amazing BIPOC-led organizations that are doing work like this, let me know! What a beautiful opportunity to allocate funds! Learn more about these orgs at the back of the book.

- BEAUTY BY EDWARD MILLS -
ADDED WITH PERMISSION

Verse:      G                  C                  G                  C
There is so much beauty in the world.                  (x2)

Am                          D                          G                          Em
Open your eyes so you can see it. Open your heart so you can be it.

C                  D                  G                  C      G      C      G      C      D
There is so much beauty in the world.

Chorus:      C                      D                      G                      Em
There is beauty all around you just take a look and see.

                    C                      D                      G                      G7
And the beauty that's inside of you is what you're meant to be.

                    C                      D                      G                      Em
There's beauty in the earth below and in the sky above.

                    Am                      Bm                      C                      D
And when you see that beauty then you'll know how much you're loved.

Verse

Bridge: Beauty walks in front of you and follows close behind.

G C G C

Beauty to your left and it is there on your right.

G C G C

Beauty above you and beauty down below.

G C G C

Beauty within you wherever you may go.

G C G C G C G C

You walk in beauty. X2. Breathe in beauty. X2

G C G C G C G C

We live in beauty. We live in beauty.

G F G	Am
Rise and fall it all begins	again

The roots that reach below us, The branches reach to sky
The egg cracks open, And the bird begins to fly
The predator it catches , The prey it tries to run
All is integrated and dissolves back into one
Into one...

The mystery of night, the openness of day
All that is revealed and all that hides away
We're reaching ever forward
While looking far behind
We circle back around and it's the center that we find
That we find...

- DOWN TO THE GROUND BY ARIELLE BROWN -
ACAPPELLA WITH PERCUSSION, ADDED WITH PERMISSION

Gather round now brothers and sisters,
There's a weight that we've been carrying.
Our souls are heavy with the weight of the world,
And I see hopelessness is creeping in.
Well I'm here to tell you that there's hope for us yet,
There's an ember hidden deep in the coals.
So we'll stoke this ember till our hearts set on fire,
And we'll alchemize this pain into gold.

I'm gonna lay it on down, I'm gonna lay it on down,
I'm gonna lay it on down, down, down to the ground. (x2)

Listen to your heart it will tell you,
That your suffering is rooted in the fear,
That you're unworthy of the love that you seek,
And you cannot trust the wisdom in your tears.
Well the earth is speaking and she's beckoning you,
To lean into the truth within your bones.
It's a sweet surrender, it's a welcome reminder, it's the drumbeat calling you to come home, home, HOME.

I'm gonna lay it on down, I'm gonna lay it on down,
I'm gonna lay it on down, down, down to the ground. (x2)

So gather round now brothers and sisters.
This invitation's here for you to see,
That isolation is the plague of our times,
And the medicine is in community.
So share your wisdom, your most vulnerable truths,
And you will shine your light for all to see.
As above so below, as within so without.
This world's great healing starts with you and me, me, ME.

I'm gonna lay it on down, I'm gonna lay it on down,
I'm gonna lay it on down, down, down to the ground. (x2) (TO END)

Traditional Negro Spiritual*

G F C
And who shall wear the starry crown Good Lord, show me the way!
G C F C
O sisters, let's go down, Let's go down, come on down
G C F C
O sisters, let's go down, Down to the river to pray

(Exchange sisters with brothers, mothers, fathers, children, elders, family, singers, and whatever else you want to sing about).

Note – this is the one song in this book that was not previously recorded or comes directly from my own lineage. However, this song is incredibly popular and I think it's really important that people know the story and lineage behind this song which is why I have included it.

*"Down in the River to Pray" (also known as "Down to the River to Pray," "Down in the Valley to Pray," "The Good Old Way," and "Come, Let Us All Go Down") is a traditional American song variously described as a Christian folk hymn, an African-American spiritual, an Appalachian song, and a southern gospel song. The exact origin of the song is unknown. Research suggests that it was composed by an African-American slave.

Hannah Szenes was born July 17, 1921 in Budapest, Hungary. The daughter of an author and a journalist, she demonstrated her own literary talent from an early age, and she kept a diary from age 13 until shortly before her death on November 7, 1944. Although her family was assimilated, anti-Semitic sentiment in Budapest led her to involvement in Zionist activities, and she left Hungary for Eretz Yisrael in 1939. She studied first at an agricultural school, and then settled at Kibbutz Sdot Yam. While there she wrote poetry, as well as a play about kibbutz life. In 1943, Szenes volunteered to become one of 33 people chosen to parachute into Europe to help establish contact with partisan resistance fighters in an attempt to aid beleaguered Jewish communities. On June 7, 1944, at the height of the deportation of Hungarian Jews, Szenes crossed the border into Hungary. She was caught almost immediately by the Hungarian police, and tortured cruelly and repeatedly over the next several months. Despite these conditions, Szenes refused to divulge any information about her mission. Throughout her ordeal she remained steadfast in her courage, and when she was executed by a firing squad on November 7, she refused the blindfold, staring squarely at her executors and her fate. Szenes was only 23 years old. israelforever.com

Intro: E x 4

I'm gonna take a full belly breath i don't need to know what is happening next
the only thing i needs here with me is my sweet soft and squishy body

hey body, what do you need just a little bit of t l and c
hey body, what should we do? i don't really care's long as i am with you

I'm gonna take a breath and drop in while the world around me spins and spins
I'm gonna play it safe and take space I'm clearing out my schedule for lazier days

hey body, what do you need just a little bit of t l and c
hey body, what should we do? i don't really care's long as i am spending more ti-me with you

- GENTLE ARMS OF EDEN -
BY DAVE CARTER & TRACY GRAMMER, 1 USE CAPO 3

G' F' C G' F' C
On a sleepy endless ocean When the world lay in a dream
F' C' F' C' Dm F'
There was rhythm in the splash and roll But not a voice to sing
G' F' C G' F' C
So the moon fell on the breakers And the morning warmed the waves
F' C' F' C' Dm G
'Til a single cell did jump and hum For joy as though to say

CHORUS: C C F' C C
This is my home, This is my only home
F' C' Am' C' G G
This is the only sacred ground that I have ever known
C C F' G' Am'
And should I stray In the dark night alone
F' C' Am' F' G' C C
Rock me Goddess in the gentle arms of Eden

Then the day shone bright and rounder, 'Til the one turned into two
And the two into ten thousand things, And old things into new
And on some virgin beach head, One lonesome critter crawled
And he looked about and shouted out, In his most astonished drawl

Then all the sky was buzzing And the ground was carpet green
And the wary children of the woods Went dancing in between
And the people sang rejoicing When the fields were glad with grain
This song of celebration From their cities on the plain

Now there's smoke across the harbour And there's factories on the shore
And the world is ill with greed and will, And enterprise of war
But I will lay my burdens In the cradle of your grace
And the shining beaches of your love, And the sea of your embrace

A FOLK ROCK SONG BY CAT STEVENS IN HAROLD & MAUDE, 1971

G D C.. G D Em..
Well if you want to sing out, sing out. And if you want to be free, be free.

Am Em D G D
Cause there's a million things to be. You know that there are.

G D C G D Em
And if you want to live high, live high. And if you want to live low, live low.

Am Em D G D
Cause there's a million ways to go. You know that there are.

Chorus (you can play a d instead of bm on the last line)

G C D G
" You can do what you want, The opportunity's on.
" And if you find a new way, You can do it today.
" You can make it all true. And you can make it un-

G Em D Em Bm (D) Em Bm D
Do you see Ahhh it's easy, AAhhhh, you only need to know.

G D C G D Em
Well if you want to say yes, say yes. And if you want to say no, say no.

Am Em D G D
Cause there's a million ways to go. You know that there are.

G D C G D Em
And if you want to be me, be me. And if you want to be you, be you.

Am Em D G D
Cause there's a million things to do. You know that there are. (CHORUS)

G D C G D Em
Well if you want to say yes, say yes. And if you want to say no, say no.

- IN OUR HANDS BY LAUREN ARROW -

I PLAY THIS SONG WITH MY GUITAR TUNED DOWN A WHOLE STEP
So I am playing the shapes of Dsus Amsus C G but playing Csus Gmsus Bb and F

Csus	Gmsus	Bb	F
I know I was	taught That this	world is for	taking but
Every small	step We come	closer to	breaking the
point isn't	for us to	Guilt trip the	past but
can we turn the	tables	Before our	collapse

(Chorus progression stays the same but goes to halftime)

Csus	Gmsus	Bb	F
We can do better I	know that we	ca---	an
We can do better it's	all in our	ha---	ands
We can do better it's	part of the	pl---	an
We can do better I	know that we	can	yes we
we can/ in our hands / its the plan (pause)
Csus	Gmsus	Bb	F
They say there's a	prophecy well I	hope that it's	true, that we'll
get to our	edges Be-	fore we break	through but how will we	know When we've	gone far en-	ough? Cuz we've come to our	cliff And we're	bout to jump	off - - - -

Chorus

Csus	Gmsus	Bb	F
I've spent my life	trying to	do the	right thing
But my 'we are all	one' song feels	like bypa-	ssing
And if I love the	earth Then it's	time that I	rise
And fight for our	balance So	all life can	thrive ~Chorus

- KOTHBIRO (RAIN IS COMING) BY AYUB OGADA -

ORIGINAL SONG IN DHOLUO, A TRIBAL LANGUAGE FROM THE LAKE VICTORIA REGION OF KENYA (3/4 TIME), FROM THE CONSTANT GARDENER

This song has a beautiful plucking pattern, but to simplify it I've added chords:

Am Em Am
Aaaah haye haye Haye haye Haye haye (x2)
Am Em Am
Oooh mam' buwinja Koth biro Keluru dhok e dala (x2)
Am Em Am
Aaaah haye haye Haye haye Haye haye (x2)
This is sung over the main melody line- "aaaah haye haye".

Yaye nyithindogi un koro un utimoru nade? Koth biro, Keluru dhok e dala
Translation from Dholuo: Kothbiro (rain is coming) Auma do you hear what I say
The rain is on it's way, Return our cattle home. Yaye the children
What is it that you think you do? The rain is on it's way
Return our cattle home.

- LO YISA GOY -

HEBREW SONG BY SHALOM ALTMAN
CAN BE SUNG IN A 3-PART ROUND

לֹא יֵשֶׁא גּוֹי אֶל גּוֹי חָרֵב וְלֹא יִלְמְדוּ עוֹד מִלְחָמָה

Lo yisa goy

El goy cherev

Lo yil'medu

Od milchamah

Additional Lyrics:

Don't walk in front of me, I may not follow.

Don't walk behind me, I may not lead.

Just walk in front of me and be my friend

Together we will walk in the land of Ha'shem.

Hebrew Translation:

A NATION SHALL NOT RAISE

A nation shall not raise

A sword against a nation

And they shall not learn

Any more war.

'THERE'S A LONG LONG TRAIL' (STODDARD KING, 'ZO ELLIOTT)
AND 'LET THE REST OF THE WORLD GO BY'
(ERNEST BALL & J. KEIRN BRENNAN)

MY GRAMMA SALLY SANG THIS TO MY MOM AS A LULLABY AND THEN MY MOM
SANG THIS TO ME, TWO DIFFERENT TUNES COMBINED, CAP 3. OPTIONAL
THIS SONG STARTS IN 4/4 AND CHANGES TO 3/4 AT "SOMEONE LIKE YOU..."

4/4:

	G..	G7..	C..	G..
There's a	long long trail a-	winding into the	land of my	dreams,
	C..	G..	D7..	D7..
Where the	nightingales are	singing and the	white moon	beams,
	G..	G7..	C..	G..
There's a	long long night a-	waiting until my	dreams all come	true,
	C..	G..	D7..
And that's the day when I'll be	going down that	long long trail with...

3/4:

G	G	D7	D7
someone like	you	a pal so good and true
D7	D7	G	G7
I'd like to leave it all		be-hind and go and find
C	C	G	G
A place that's known		to God a -	--- lone
D7	D7	D7	D7	(open strum)
just a	place to	call our	own	... we'll

G	G	D7	D7
find perfect	peace where	joys never	cease,	some-
D7	D7	G	G7
where beneath the western		skies, I'll go and find,	a
C	C	G	G
place that's	known to	God	a-lone, and let the
D7	D	G
rest of the	world roll	by. (x2)

Repeat the entire song, repeating the last line 4x

A..	G.. (alternates to Em / Dsus / Bm)
One day, Mama, One day, Mama	One day, Mama, One day, Mama (x4)
G- A -Bm
A..	G..
Feels like the world's on fire	A.. Em..
	But I know where the healing waters flow
A..	Dsus..
Some people float down the river,	some people play in the sea
A..	Bm..
And I bathe in the warm hearts	of you and me, yeah

Chorus: A	G	A	Em
I know love will find a way, one day		I know love will find a way, to get us through today
A	Dsus	A	Bm
I know love will find a way, one day		I know love will find a way, one day, one day
(To One day...)

A	G	A	Em
Feels like our castles are crumbling down		But those stones will be happier on the ground
A	Dsus
Mama Earth is laughing at us, saying: "Baby, why you worried at all?"
A	Bm
Don't you know the rising comes after the fall?"		To Chorus, Then One Day

A	G
So attached to these bodies of flesh and bone, that keep us so alone
A	Em	A	Dsus
Not saying I want to die, but when my day comes I'll happily Fly.....
A	Bm
And I'll become that pure blue sky ...		To Chorus, Then One Day

A	G.. (alternates to Em / Dsus / Bm)
La la lee lup yay yay,	love will find a way	x2

- LOVER EARTH BY LAUREN ARROW, 2019 -

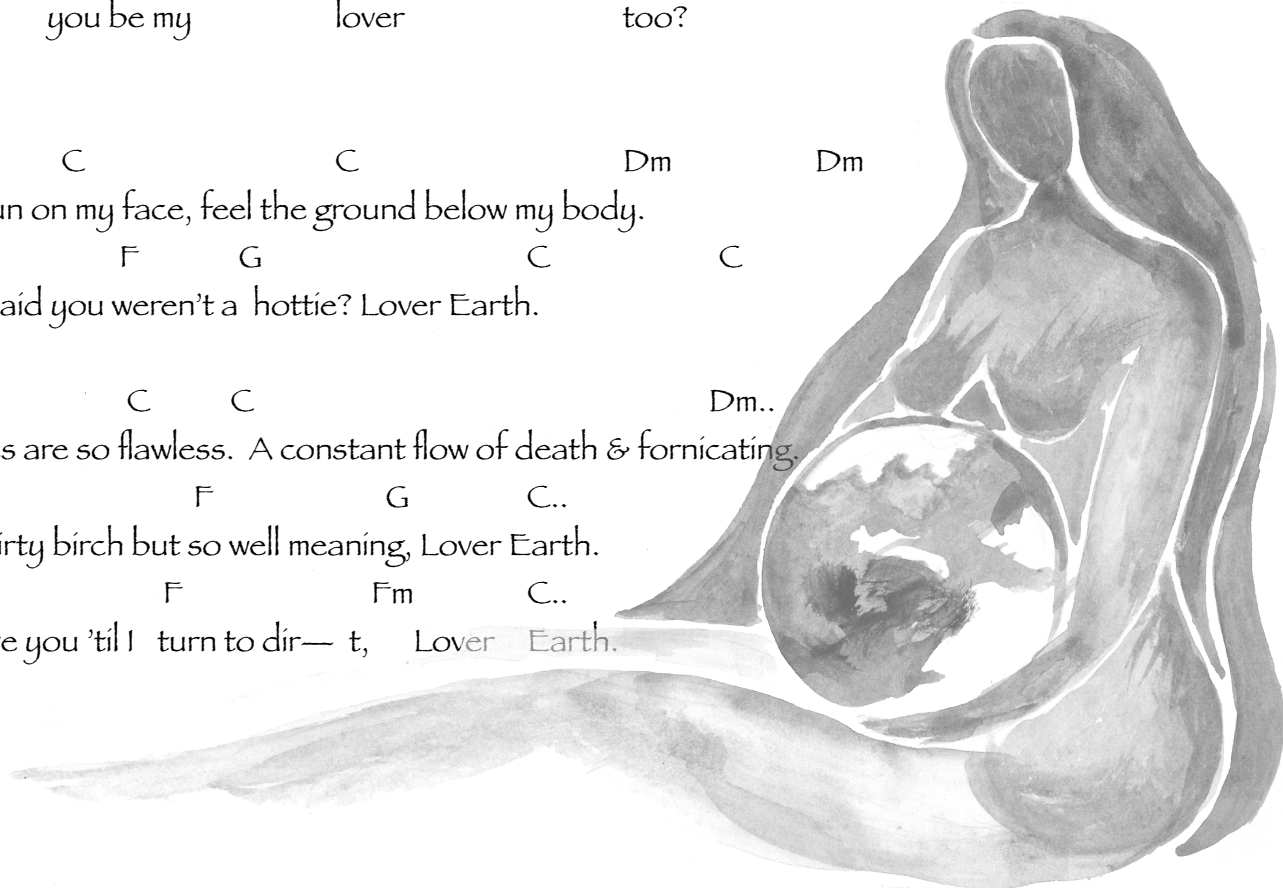

I would like to date you, I would like to be your loverrr - - - -
Even though they call you Mother... Lover Earth.

I would like to court you, Go on hikes and bring you picnics.
You'll see we're really not so different... Lover Earth.

Cuz I've got a secret:
I've been in love with you!
And it took me a while to sing it...
Will you be my lover too?

Feel the sun on my face, feel the ground below my body.
Whoever said you weren't a hottie? Lover Earth.

Your cycles are so flawless. A constant flow of death & fornicating.
You're a dirty birch but so well meaning, Lover Earth.
And I'll love you 'til I turn to dirt, Lover Earth.

JEWISH SONG, SUNG ACAPELLA IN A ROUND

Ma tovu
Ohaleicha ya'akov
Mishkenoteicha
Yisrael.

מה טובו אהלך יעקב משכנותיך ישראל

Translation: How goodly are thy tents, O Jacob, thy dwelling places, O Israel!
(Rest of prayer: As for me, through Your abundant grace, I enter your house to worship with awe in Your sacred place. O Lord, I love the House where you dwell, and the place where your glory tabernacles. I shall prostrate myself and bow; I shall kneel before the Lord my Maker. To You, Eternal One, goes my prayer: may this be a time of your favor. In Your abundant love, O God, answer me with the Truth of Your salvation.)

- ME AND BOBBY MCGEE, KRIS KRISTOPHERSON -

G G
Busted flat in Baton Rouge, waitin' for a train
G D7
When I's feelin' near as faded as my jeans
D7 D7
Bobby thumbed a diesel down just before it rained
D7 G
And rode us all the way into New Orleans

G G
I pulled my harpoon out of my dirty red bandana
G G7 C
I's playin' soft while Bobby sang the blues
C G
Windshield wipers slappin' time, I was holdin' Bobby's hand in mine
D7 D7
We sang every song that driver knew

C G
D7 G
Nothin', it ain't nothin' honey, if it ain't free
C G
And feelin' good was easy, lord, oh, when he sang the blues
D7
You know feelin' good was good enough for me
G
Good enough for me and my Bobby McGee

Soulful Singing Sisterhood Songbook 3rd Edition

G

From the Kentucky coal mines to the California sun

D7

Yeah Bobby shared the secrets of my soul

Through all kinds of weather, through everything we done

G

Yeah Bobby baby kept me from the cold

One day up near Salinas, lo-ord, I let him slip away

C

He's lookin' for that home and I hope he finds it

G

Well I'd trade all my tomorrows for one single yesterday

D7

To be holdin' Bobby's body next to mine

Chorus:

C

D7

G

Nothin', and that's all that Bobby left me

G

Well, feelin' good was easy, lo-o-ord, when he sang the blues

D7

And feelin' good was good enough for me

G

Good enough for me and my Bobby McGee (VAMP!)

G C G
Worked hard all my lifetime, no help from my friends,
D G
So Lord, won't you buy me a Mercedes Benz?

Oh Lord, won't you buy me a color TV?
Dialing For Dollars is trying to find me.
I wait for delivery each day until three,
So oh Lord, won't you buy me a color TV?

Oh Lord, won't you buy me a night on the town?
I'm counting on you, Lord, please don't let me down.
Prove that you love me and buy the next round,
Oh Lord, won't you buy me a night on the town?

Everybody!
Oh Lord, won't you buy me a Mercedes Benz?
My friends all drive Porsches, I must make amends,
Worked hard all my lifetime, no help from my friends,
So oh Lord, won't you buy me a Mercedes Benz?

Additional lyrics:

Oj djevojko moja, jesil večerala (x2)

Nisem, dragi, nisem, ni to beduvala
jer ve majka moja, bila i karala

Poleg tvoga dragi, gustog dohajanja (x2)

Da bi draga ja znal, da te kara zato,
Ne bi došel draga i zutra k večeru.

Translation:

Oh my girl,
Did you have dinner?

No, my dear (boyfriend), I did not, nothing at
all. Because my mother reproached me
Because of your visits to me

If I had knew, my dear
That she would reproach you for that
I wouldn't be coming in the morning and in the evening.

- SWEET VOICE BY CHRISTINA ROCHELLE, 2017 -

STUDENT IN THE SOULFUL SINGING SISTERHOOD, ADDED WITH PERMISSION

Chorus:

Am

Sweet voice I hear you now

G Am

Sweet voice I hear you now

G Am

In this sacred space I kneel

E Am

And to your love and grace I bow

Am

Layer upon layer

G Am

Revealing the raw center

G

Am

I peel back the past

Em Am

Of who I am at last

Am

Shy and slightly scared

G Am

The truth of my spirit

G

Am

I move forward to expose

E Am

And everything that she knows

(chorus)

Am

As my song expresses fully

G Am

And the trappings of my heart

G

Am

All the wounds begin to heal

E Am

Are free to call for what they feel

Am

Letting go of expectation

G Am

Trusting time brings translation

G

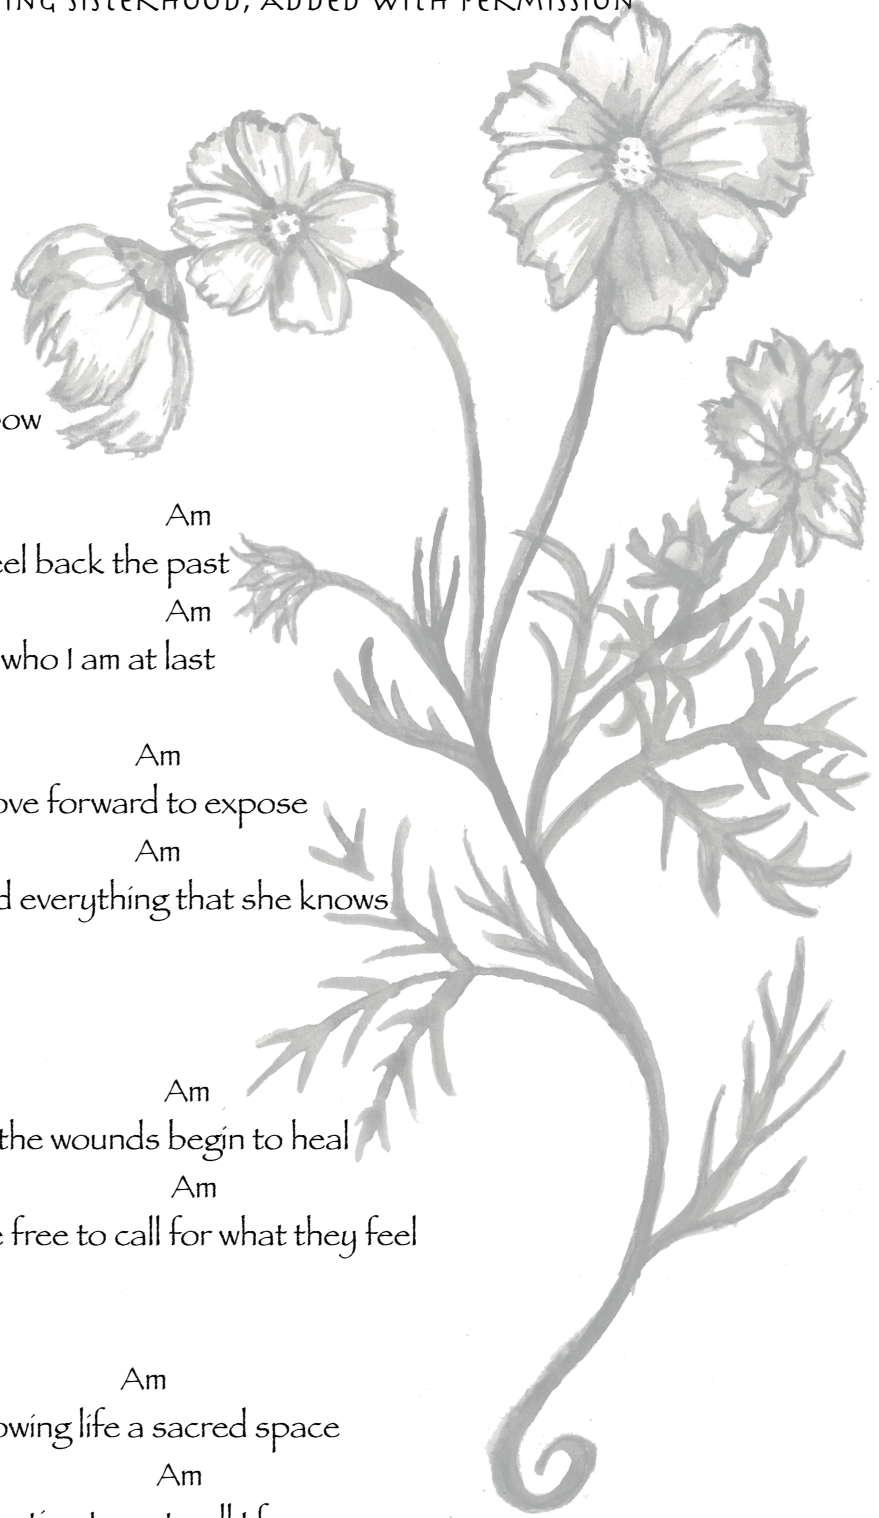

Am

Allowing life a sacred space

E Am

Devoting Love to all I face

Chorus to end

- THE LIGHT WITHIN BY MELITA - ADDED WITH PERMISSION

C G F..
Every path leads to the center

C G F..
Anywhere you may choose to enter
If you forget where you're going
Turn on the light deep inside you

C G F..
Each little step along the way

C G F..
Nothing can lead you astray...and
When you feel lost out at sea
For by this light shall you see — (G)

Dm C G..
Oooooooooooooooooooooo (x4)

C G F..
Sands are sifting, seeds are drifting
Veils are lifting, times are shifting
Old ways are burning, tides are turning
Our souls are yearning, minds unlearning

C G F..
The only constant is change
Our thoughts are being rearranged
As we embrace ourselves anew
As we adjust our points of view — (G)

Dm C G..
Oooooooooooooooooooooo (x4)

C G F G
Whether you've gained, whether you've lost, Weathered by waves, tumbled and tossed
Whether you left, whether you stayed Whether you quit, whether you played

C G F D..
There is a path, there is a way That leads you back from where you strayed---

C G F..
The light within will guide you home don't be afraid

C G F G
Whether you tried, whether you failed Whether the rocks ripped up your sails
Whether you ran away to hide Whether the brightness made you blind

C G F D..
There is a path, there is a way That leads you back from where you strayed---

C G F..
The light within will guide you home don't be afraid (x2)

C G C
The light within will guide you home don't be afraid (x2) Ending C - G - F - C (x2)

- THE WOMB SONG BY ILA CANTOR -
ADDED WITH PARMESAN

You come into the world until you see its a womb
You're loving what your mother has begun to create but
Your sisters and your brothers are awakening too
It's time to realize another birthing awaits you!

So come into llllllfeeeee
Come to the soil at the roots of your soul
The essence you find
When loving is beckoning for seedlings to grow

The song repeats but the underlined line changes with the following:

Come to the waters at the well at your soul

Come to the fire at the heart of your soul

Come to the flowers and the fruits of your soul

Inside the love we learn to trust that we can fall
C	D	G	Em	C	D
That we can fall into the all-encompassing	Place to which we're all returning
(end: Spirit Welcomes Everything)

Em..	C	D
Our prayers they rise sprouting wings like butterflies, Our spirits
Sing , we recognize The divine in each others eyes and in every Thing And come what may, as we pull these masks away in Witness of whats real, it is the way to heal

Em..	C	D	Em	Em..	C	D	Em
Oooooooooo	We hold it all within			Oooooooooo	And in surrendering
Em..	C	D	G	Em	C	D
Oooooooooo	We learn how to just let things be...			it's how we become free

Cause we hold the love...

(At the very end of song replace "Place to which..." with "Spirit Welcomes Everything")

- WITCHY WAYS BY LAUREN ARROW -
1 PLAY WITH CAPO 2 IF I'M FEELING IT

Am Em Dm G
She's birthing a new way, the new dawn is coming

Am Em Dm G
She's been out underground and now she is rising

Am Em Dm G
Her heartbeat beats the drum, we know where we come from

Am Em Dm G
The Earth is our mother and now we must find home

Chorus:

We're bringing back those witchy ways that they burned at the stake

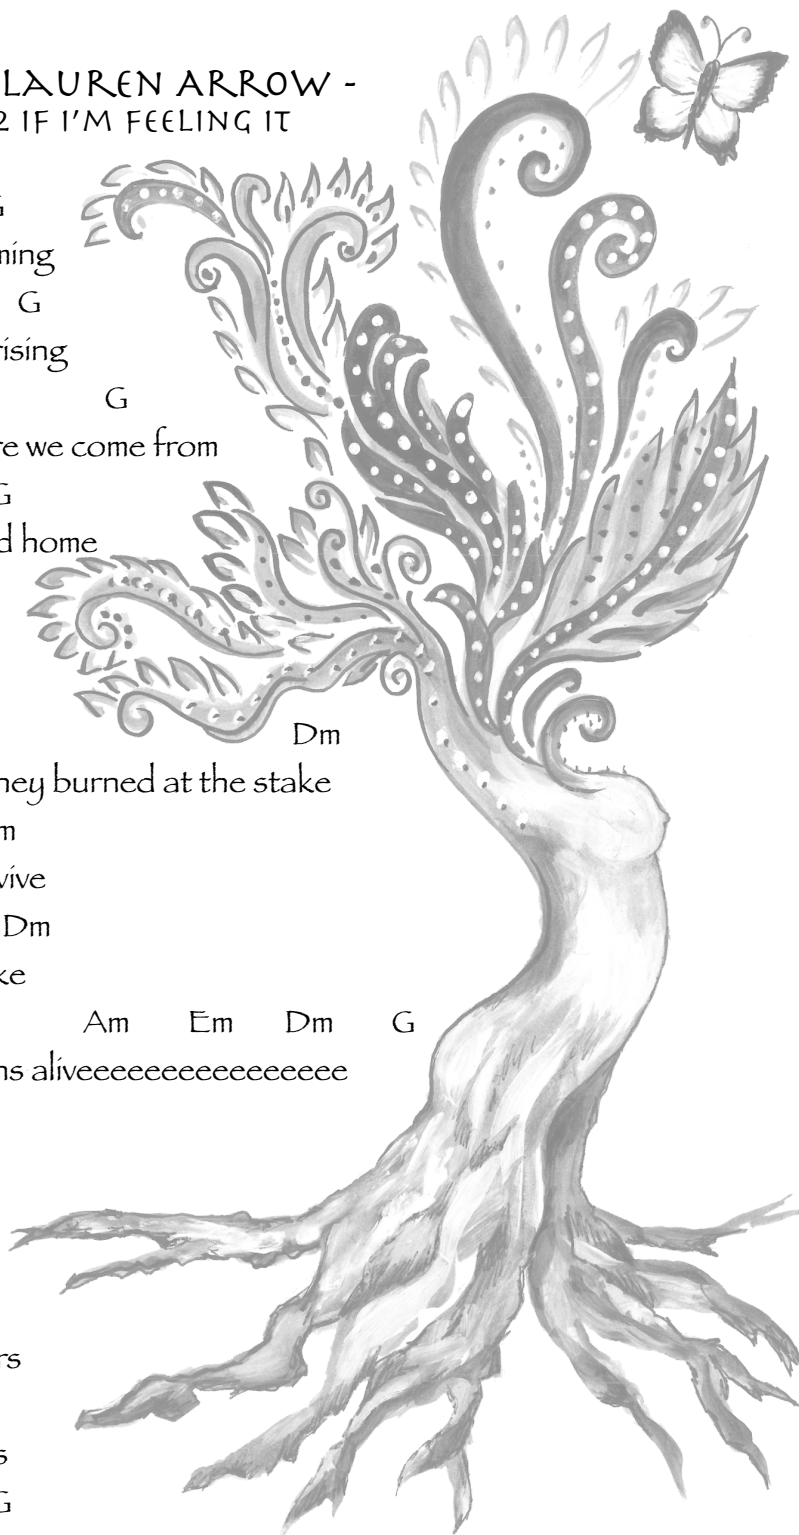

Bringing light to our lives ignite the will to survive

Those witchy ways that they tried hard to take

But our light can not die, their memory remains aliveeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeee

And its burning briiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiight

Am Em Dm G
Therapists, priestesses, sex workers, teachers
Am Em Dm G
As women we rise up to heal earth's creatures
Am Em Dm G
In your eyes we are one on one earth round one sun
Am Em Dm G
The heavens awaken to guide everyone home ..... To Chorus

- WOMEN WHO RUN WITH THE WOLVES BY MARYA STARK - CHANT WITH RATTLES, ADDED WITH PERMISSION

Ch: I am a woman who runs with the wolves
A brave heart shatterin' shatterin' walls
A woman who follows follows the call of
The wild one dancing dancing it all

I have stood naked in front of the judge
I bared my body my breasts and my blood
I heard their whispers of disrepair
I choose to leave all of it there!

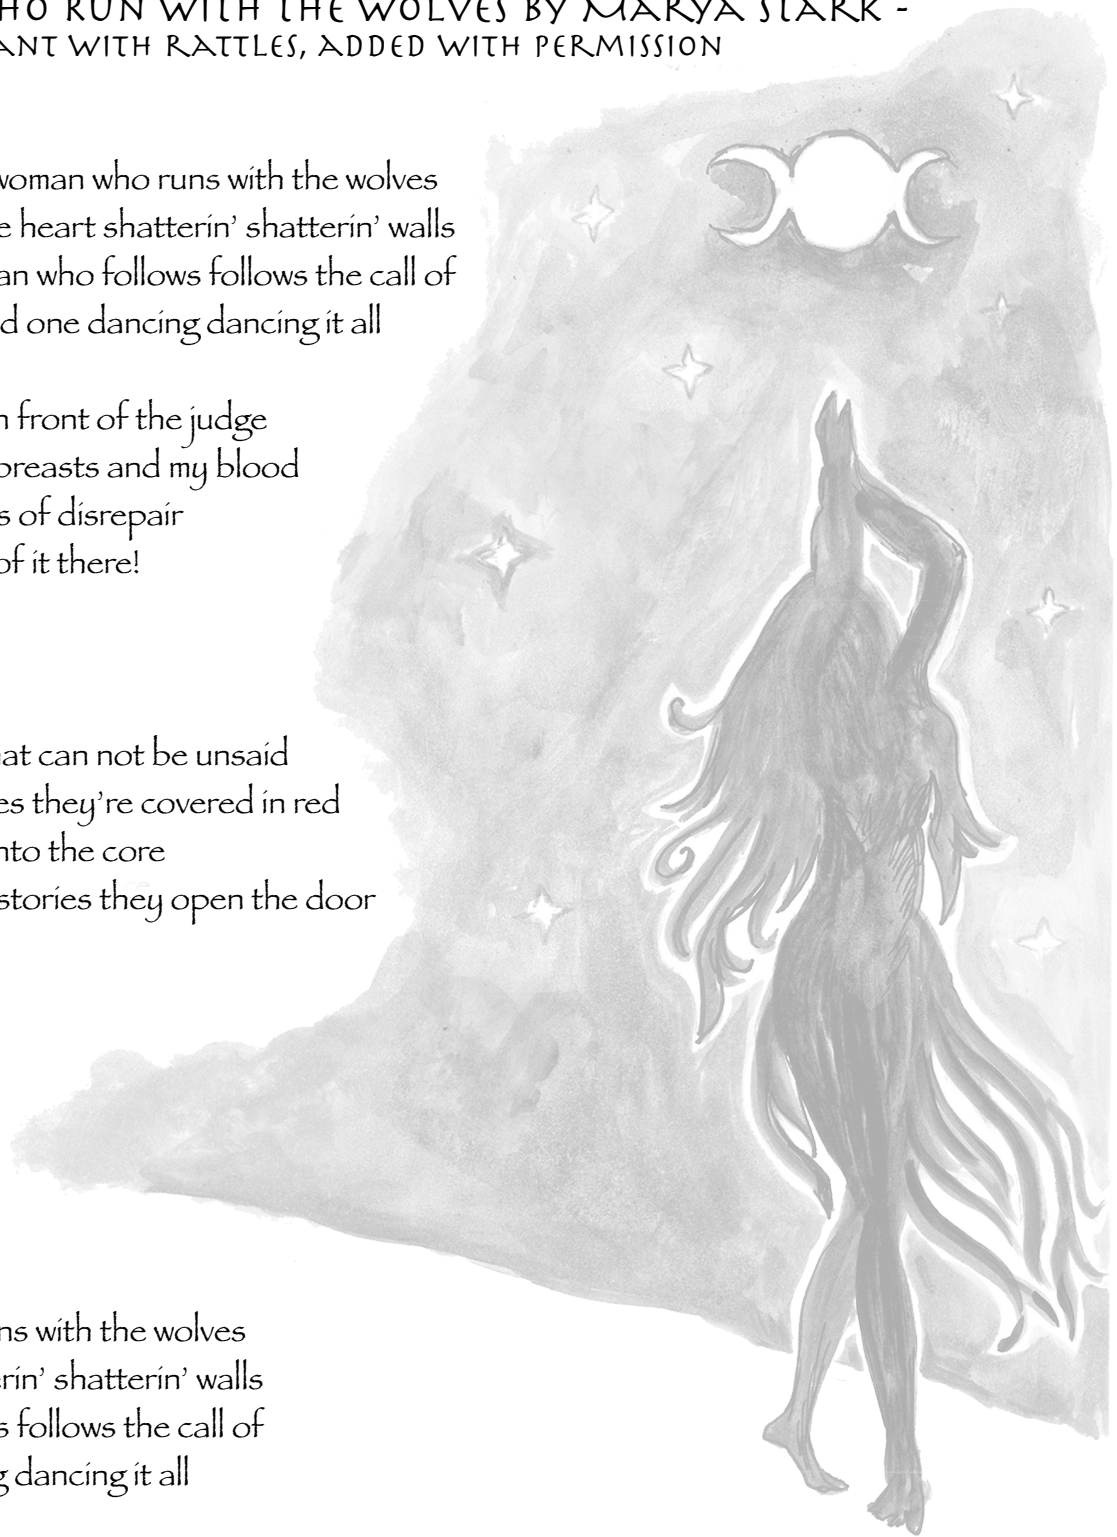

Ch.

I have spoke truth that can not be unsaid
I have found treasures they're covered in red
I have gone deeper into the core
Where the oldest of stories they open the door

Ch.

I am a Woman!
I am a Wild One!
I am a Woman!
I am a Wild One!

I am a woman who runs with the wolves
A brave heart shatterin' shatterin' walls
A woman who follows follows the call of
The wild one dancing dancing it all

- YOU HAVE A CHOICE BY LAUREN ARROW -
ON "IT'S HAPPENING!" 2016

Intro: Am, F, G x2

Am...

You have a choice: to be free or to live in captivity.

F..

The walls are in your mind-

G..

Thanks for the reminder!

Am....

Feel your body in the breeze

The sunlight in the trees

F..

G..

Touches everything.

Am....

Whats stopping you

from being a vessel clear and true?

F..

This is not a test

G..

It is up to no one but yourself.

Am....

You have a choice: to be free or to live in captivity.

F..

The walls are in your mind-

G..

Thanks for the reminder!

CAPO 3

Am E7 Am E7 Am-E7-Am
When you're down and troubled and you need some loving care,
Dm G7 C E7
and nothing, oh, nothing is going right,
E7 Am E7 Am-E7-Am
close your eyes and think of me and soon I will be there
Dm Em G7
to brighten up even your darkest night.

Chorus:

C F
You just call out my name, and you know wherever I am,
C G
I'll come running to see you again.
C F Am
Winter, spring, summer, or fall, all you got to do is call
F
and I'll be there, yeah, yeah, yeah.
C F C E7
You've got a friend.

Am E7 Am E7 Am E7 Am
If the sky above you should turn dark and full of clouds,
Dm G7 C
and that old north wind should begin to blow,
Am7 E7 Am E7 Am E7 Am
keep your head together and call my name out loud.
Dm Em G7
Soon I'll be knocking upon your door.

F
Hey ain't it good to know that you've got a friend when people can be so cold. They'll hurt you and desert you.
C F
Am D7
Well, they'll take your soul if you let them.
G7 G
Oh yeah, but don't you let them.

C F
You just call out my name, and you know wherever I am,
C G
I'll come running to see you again.
C F Am
Winter, spring, summer, or fall, all you got to do is call
